Gene CHIZIK

HEAD COACH

During his first season as Auburn's head coach, Gene Chizik demonstrated that great things are in store for the Tigers under his command. In his initial season, Chizik led the Tigers to an 8-5 record and a victory over Northwestern in the 2010 Outback Bowl on New Year's Day. He became the first head coach in school history to lead his team to a bowl game in his first season, just the third coach in Auburn history to win his first five games as head coach and only the third SEC coach since the conference expanded in 1992 to win his first five games.

Chizik's first Auburn squad set numerous team and individual records, including team records for most points (433) and total yards (5,613) in a season. The Tigers had a knack for playing well in big games, winning four games against teams that played in bowl games during the 2009 season.

The momentum from the 2009 season carried over into the recruiting season, as Chizik signed his second consecutive highly-ranked class. Auburn's 2010 recruiting class was ranked No. 4 in the nation by both Rivals.com and ESPN/Scouts Inc., as the Tigers continue to build towards the future.

The program's defensive coordinator from 2002-04, Chizik was named Auburn's 26th head coach on December 13, 2008, after serving the two previous seasons as head coach at Iowa State. A 23-year coaching veteran, Chizik helped Auburn and Texas to consecutive undefeated seasons in 2004 and 2005. His three-year stint as Auburn's defensive coordinator culminated in 2004, when he helped guide the Tigers to a 13-0 season while earning the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.

Chizik also served as the assistant head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Texas from 2005-06 where he helped the Longhorns to a perfect season and national championship in 2005.

During his tenure at Auburn, Chizik's 2004 defense led the nation in scoring defense (11.3 ppg) and was fifth nationally in total defense, allowing just 277.6 yards per contest. In three years at Auburn, Chizik helped the Tigers to a 30-9 mark including an 18-6 Southeastern Conference record. In 2003, Auburn's defense was fifth nationally in total defense.

In his two seasons in Austin, the Longhorns were 22-3. At one point, he was a part of 29 consecutive victories, which began in 2003 at Auburn and ended in 2006 at Texas.

Chizik's reputation as an outstanding teacher is evident by the fact that he tutored a remarkable three consecutive Thorpe Award winners, starting with Auburn's Carlos Rogers in 2004, followed by Texas' Michael Huff and Aaron Ross in 2005 and 2006, respectively.

During his two seasons at Iowa State, the 46-year old Chizik was in the midst of a rebuilding process, directing the Cyclones to a 5-19 mark. The Iowa State administration rewarded Chizik's leadership and vision for the program by offering him a two-year contract extension following the 2008 season.

Chizik's first win came against intrastate rival Iowa in 2007, making him the first Cyclone coach since 1907 to beat the Hawkeyes in his inaugural season. The 2007 season also included conference wins over Kansas State and bowl-bound Colorado.

Auburn's undefeated season of 2004 saw one of the best defensive teams ever to wear a Tigers uniform. Not only did they lead the nation in scoring defense, but they surrendered just four rushing touchdowns all season, including allowing none over the first eight games of the season. That vaunted 2004 defense featured eight of 11 starters that went on to play in the NFL, including 2005 first-round draft pick cornerback Carlos Rogers and defensive lineman Jay Ratliff, who earned All-Pro honors with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

The 2003 AU defense under Chizik was just as talent laden as the undefeated squad, as eight of 11 starters went on to play in the NFL as well. Led by first-team All-SEC picks Karlos Dansby, DeMarco McNeil and Dontarious Thomas, Auburn was fifth nationally in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and ninth in the country in scoring defense.

By allowing less than 300 yards of total offense in consecutive seasons in 2003 (281.6 ypg) and 2004 (277.6 ypg), it marked the first time at Auburn since a six-year run from 1985-90, that an Auburn defense had accomplished the feat in back-to-back campaigns.

In his first season at Auburn, Chizik took a club that was 39th nationally in total defense the season before he arrived and improved it to 26th in the country while holding three Top 10 teams - LSU, Alabama and Penn State - to less than 10 points each en route to victory.

During his 39 games at Auburn as defensive coordinator, the Tigers were able to defeat nine Top 10 programs, win three bowl games, and hold 24 of 39 opponents to two touchdowns or less, including 14 that managed single digits against his aggressive, physical defenses.

He also tutored three All-Americans in Dansby, Rogers and Junior Rosegreen and had nine players earn 10 first-team All-SEC honors. Chizik had 10 players over three seasons that went on to be NFL draft picks.

Chizik's defense played an integral part in Texas' 2005 national championship season as the Longhorns ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, 10th in total defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense. UT allowed opponents to reach 300 yards of total offense only five times in 2005 and held the remaining eight opponents to less than 267 yards. Ten UT defenders were all-Big 12 Conference selections, including four who made the first team.

In 2006, Chizik's Longhorn defenders were second nationally against the rush (58.8 ypg.) after 12 games, including limiting No. 1 Ohio State to just 79 yards on the ground. His aggressive schemes resulted in 100 tackles for loss, 96 quarterback hurries and 30 takeaways during the 2006 regular season.

Chizik coached six Longhorns to All-American honors in his two seasons, including Aaron Harris, Michael Huff and Rod Wright in 2005, and Tim Crowder, Michael Griffin and Aaron Ross in 2006. His defensive players earned 18 All-Big 12 awards during his tenure.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn, Chizik was the defensive coordinator for four seasons (1998-01) at Central Florida, where he improved a unit that was 81st nationally in total defense before his arrival to one that was 16th in the country in 2001.

Chizik spent six seasons at Stephen F. Austin from 1992-97, overseeing the linebackers (1992-94) and secondary (1995-97). While at Stephen F. Austin, Chizik helped the Lumberjacks to back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, including a national semifinal appearance in 1995.

He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator (1986-88) at Seminole High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., before becoming a graduate assistant at Clemson for a pair of 10-win teams in 1988-89. Chizik's first full-time college coaching position came at Middle Tennessee State, where he helped lead the Blue Raiders to NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in both of his seasons (1990-91) and to a conference championship in 1990.

Chizik earned his B.A. degree in education from Florida in 1985 and his M.A. in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1991.

A Clearwater, Fla., native, Chizik and his wife, Jonna, have identical twin daughters, Landry Grace and Kennedy Danielle, and a son, Cally.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT GENE CHIZIK

Mack Brown, Texas Head Coach

"Gene is a terrific football coach and a good man with a great family. He did a great job for us at Texas and was very instrumental in leading our defense in the 2005 National Championship season. He had the guys well prepared, did a nice job managing practices and games and we could always tell he was going to be a successful head coach at some point. As good of a coach he is, he is equally as good at building relationships, which is one of the main reasons I think he'll do a terrific job running the Auburn program."

Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN GameDay ESPN/ABC College Football Analyst

"I think it's an outstanding hire... if you look a little bit deeper, the fact that he was the defensive coordinator the year that Auburn had that magical year where they were undefeated and left out of the national championship, you might understand it. If you look at the success he had as defensive coordinator at Texas, you might understand it. And if you look at the man that he is and the way he can represent this (Auburn) university, me personally, I think it's an outstanding hire. Auburn, congratulations, you got a great one."

Michael Huff, Oakland Raiders Former Texas All-American Defensive Back 2005 Thorpe Award Winner

"Coach Chizik is a high-energy, excitable guy, the kind of coach that makes it fun to get to work every day. We had a great time with him at Texas and he always had us ready for whoever we were playing and helped us all improve as players. I'm really happy that he has the chance to be the Auburn coach and definitely will be pulling for him."

DeMarco McNeill Former Auburn Defensive Tackle

"Coach Chizik is a good, hard-nosed football coach. He tells it like it is. He would tell you when you were doing things the right way, but he'd get on you and tell you when you weren't. As a player, that's all you can ask from a coach. He got the most out of his players. I got a smile on my face when I heard (that he had been hired). I was kind of like everyone else, a little anxious to see who we hired as head coach. But I think he was the best candidate out there and Jay (Jacobs) did a great job of going and getting him."

Jay Ratliff, All-Pro, Dallas Cowboys Former Auburn defensive lineman

"I love Gene Chizik. When he was there I loved and enjoyed playing for him. He simplified the defense and we enjoyed playing under him. He made practice fun. It was intense but it was fun. He's a straight shooter. He's going to tell you just how it is. I think he's definitely a player's coach and any player that plays under him is going to love him."

Carlos Rogers, Washington Redskins Former Auburn All-American Defensive Back 2004 Thorpe Award Winner

"This was the best decision Auburn could have made. Coach Chizik was like a dad to me. From a player and student point of view he's exactly what Auburn needs in a head coach."

Dontarrious Thomas, San Diego Chargers Former Auburn linebacker

"Gene Chizik knows the game of football and knows how to motivate and relate to young athletes. He knows how to motivate them to be successful not only on the field but in the classroom and in the game of life. He will be a blessing for the players and for Auburn University."

Reggie Torbor, Buffalo Bills Former Auburn Defensive End

"He's a great coach and good man. He told me something once that I have never forgotten, 'Never let your character be dictated by your circumstance.' He told me that after a bad loss at LSU. I think he'll do a good job and was a good choice. He really knows defense."

Carnell Williams, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Former Auburn All-American Running Back

"Coach Chizik is a players' coach. Even though he was on the defensive side of the ball, he taught all of us the importance of hard work. He's the kind of coach recruits hope to get to play for, and I think this is a great hire. I'm excited for Auburn."

Jay BOULWARE

TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Jay Boulware is in his second season as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Auburn.

In his first season on the Plains, Boulware coached Auburn kicker Wes Byrum, who set school single-season records for points by a kicker (99) and field goal percentage (93.8). Byrum, who ranked third in the NCAA in field goal percentage among kickers with at least 10 attempts, made 15-of-16 field goals and was perfect on 54 PAT attempts, setting another school record.

Boulware also guided Demond Washington to an Auburn single-season record for kickoff return average, as Washington's average of 31.1 yards per return led the SEC and ranked sixth nationally. Washington also set an Auburn single-game record with 202 kickoff return yards on five returns vs.

Georgia.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Boulware served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Iowa State for two seasons from 2007-08. He has also coached at Texas, Northern Illinois, Arizona, Stanford and Utah, and has coached all-conference players at three different positions in three different conferences. Boulware now has six years experience serving as a special teams coach, having previously overseen units at Iowa State and Utah for two years each and Arizona for one season.

In 2008 under Boulware, Iowa State ranked 12th nationally in kickoff returns, behind Rivals.com second-team freshman All-American kick returner Leonard Johnson. Johnson set an NCAA FBS record with 319 kickoff return yards earlier this season against Oklahoma State. ISU was also second in the Big 12 Conference in punting during 2008.

In Boulware's first ISU season, newcomer tailbacks Alexander Robinson and J.J. Bass both posted a pair of 100-yard games. It marked the first time two different Cyclone running backs topped the century barrier twice in a single season since 2002.

While at Utah, his Ute special teams were among the Mountain West Conference leaders, including the Utah kickoff return unit led the MWC in 2006.

A native of Irving, Texas, Boulware was a two-year letterman at offensive line while playing for the University of Texas. He began his coaching career at Texas, first as a student coach (1994-95) and then as a graduate assistant (1996), where he helped the Longhorns to bowl games all three seasons.

Under his direction, several Boulware-coached players have earned national honors and played in the National Football League. At Northern Illinois, he recruited future All-American and current Atlanta running back Michael Turner. During Boulware's tenure at NIU, the Huskie offense ranked 12th nationally in rushing as two-time all-MAC offensive lineman Ryan Diem moved on to the NFL, where he plays for the Indianapolis Colts. While at Arizona, Boulware coached all-Pac 10 tailback Mike Bell, who now plays for the New Orleans Saints.

Jeff GRIMES

OFFENSIVE LINE

Jeff Grimes is in his second year as offensive line coach at Auburn, and had a hand in directing one of the nation's top offenses during his initial season.

The Auburn offense set numerous school records during his first season, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and most plays in a season (914).

Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth. The Tigers also had the seventh-most rushing yards (2,756) in a single season in Auburn history.

In addition, Grimes coached both Ryan Pugh and Lee Ziemba to second-team All-SEC honors during the 2009 season.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Grimes served as the assistant head coach, running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado for two seasons from 2007-08. Two of his CU linemen from his first season, Tyler Polumbus and Edwin Harrison, were on NFL rosters in 2008.

An 18-year coaching veteran, Grimes came to Colorado from Brigham Young, where he coached the offensive line for three seasons from 2004-06. His 2006 BYU linemen were a large part of the Cougars' Mountain West Conference championship team, which finish 11-2. BYU averaged 465.5 yards per game on offense, 323.5 through the air, both figures fourth in the nation, averaged 141.9 on the ground and allowed just 15 quarterback sacks in 13 games, or just one for every 30.1 passing attempts. The Cougars also boasted a 1,000-yard rusher in Curtis Brown (1,010 yards).

His players achieved great success in three seasons at Arizona State from 2001-03. With four of his 2001 seniors drafted into the NFL, it marked just the second time that had been done at any school since the NFL adopted the seven-round draft format in 1993. He then assembled a new offensive line in 2002 that protected the ninth-rated passing offense in the country, the core of the same group that a year later helped Loren Wade break the ASU freshman rushing record and lead the Pac-10 in yards per carry.

In one season at Boise State in 2000, Grimes' offensive line helped the Broncos lead the nation in scoring offense and accumulate 175 rushing yards per game.

Grimes began his coaching career in 1993 as a high school coach at Riverside High School in El Paso. After two years as the offensive coordinator and line coach there, he moved on to the college ranks, first working as a graduate assistant at Rice (1995) and then at Texas A&M (1996-97).

His first full-time position was serving as offensive line coach at Hardin Simmons, a position he held for two years (1998-99) before moving on to the Division I-A level at Boise State. The Cowboys were 21-2 in his two seasons, reaching the national semifinals in 1999 and averaged 39.4 points per game during his tenure, eclipsing 50 on six occasions.

Grimes earned four letters as an offensive tackle for UTEP between 1987 and 1990, including three years under former BSU and ASU head coach Dirk Koetter when he was UTEP's offensive coordinator and two years under current Philadelphia Eagles' head coach Andy Reid.

He was in training camp with both the Los Angeles Raiders of the NFL and the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League before entering coaching.

Phillip LOLLEY

CORNERBACKS

A member of the Auburn staff since 1999, Phillip Lolley is in his second season as cornerbacks coach under head coach Gene Chizik. Lolley previously served as a secondary coach at Auburn from 2002-03, and was the Tigers' Director of NFL Relations for five seasons from 2004-08.

Under Lolley's direction, Walter McFadden tied for eighth in the nation with six interceptions in 2009, and tied for the national lead by returning two for scores. McFadden, whose 154 interception return yards ranks third in Auburn history, earned second-team All-SEC honors for his efforts and was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

The Tigers also ranked 17th nationally in opponent third-down conversion percentage (32.8) and 31st in pass defense efficiency during the 2009 season.

During Lolley's first tenure coaching Auburn's secondary, he helped the Tigers finish 13th in nation in scoring defense in 2002 and ninth in 2003. Lolley coached Thorpe Award winner Carlos Rogers and Junior Rosegreen, who both went on to earn All-America honors in 2004. During those two years, he coached numerous future NFL players including Rogers, Rosegreen, Will Herring, Kevin Hobbs, Roderick Hood, Travaris Robinson and Horace Willis. He was then also instrumental in the recruitment and development of future NFL defensive backs David Irons, Patrick Lee, Jertraud Powers and Jonathan Wilhite.

A 22-year high school coach standout in the state of Alabama, Lolley served as head coach at three schools, including North Jackson High School, where he led the program to the 1993 4A state championship. A native of Butler, Ala., Lolley spent 10 years at North Jackson from 1988-98, where his teams advanced to the state playoffs each season.

Lolley began his coaching career at South Choctaw Academy in 1977 before becoming the head coach at Warrior Academy in Eutaw, from 1978-82. He also served as defensive coordinator at Demopolis High School (1982-84) and head coach at Stevenson High School (1984-87).

Prior to his coaching stint at Auburn, Lolley was a strength and conditioning coach on the Plains from 1999-00.

Curtis LUPER

RUNNING BACKS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Curtis Luper is in his second season as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Auburn, and has been instrumental in Auburn's resurgence both on the field and on the recruiting trail.

The Auburn offense set numerous school records during his first season, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and most plays in a season (914). Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth. The Tigers also had the seventh-most rushing yards (2,756) in a single season in Auburn history.

Luper coached Ben Tate, who posted the fourth-best single-season rushing total in school history with 1,362 yards and had seven 100-yard rushing games while being named a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award.

In addition to his work with the Tiger running backs, Luper was instrumental in Auburn signing a consensus top-five recruiting class in 2010. For his efforts, he was named by Rivals.com to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the top 10 recruiters in the SEC for the signing class of 2010.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Luper served as Oklahoma State's running backs coach from 2005-08, and as the assistant head coach for player development during his last two seasons with the Cowboys.

Under Luper, the OSU running attack led the Big 12 Conference in rushing during his last three seasons and finished the 2008 campaign averaging 245.5 yards per game. The Cowboys, who finished with a 9-4 record in 2008, were eighth nationally in rushing.

Oklahoma State finished seventh nationally and first in the Big 12 Conference in rushing in 2006 and 2007 averaging 243.2 and 208.0 yards per game, respectively. Under Luper's tutelage, the Cowboys had back-to-back 1,000 yard rushers in Kendall Hunter (1,555) in 2008 and Dantrell Savage (1,272) in 2007.

Gus MALZAHN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Gus Malzahn is in his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn, and his innovative offense made an immediate and profound impact during his initial season.

The Auburn offense set numerous school records during his first season, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613), most passing touchdowns in a season (25) and most plays in a season (914).

Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth. The Tigers had the second-most number of pass completions (218), tied for the third most pass attempts (364) and had the fifth-most passing yards (2,857) and the seventh-most rushing yards (2,756) in Auburn history.

It marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. The Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to 17th in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 33.3), from 104th to 16th in total offense (from 302.9 to 431.7), and from 119th to fourth in red zone offense (from 57.1 pct to 95.0). It also took Auburn just six games in 2009 to score more points than it did in all 12 games in 2008.

Malzahn's first Auburn offense displayed the ability to strike quickly, with 29 scoring drives that used less than two minutes on the clock, including 26 that resulted in touchdowns. Auburn also demonstrated a knack for making big plays in 2009, with 18 plays of more than 40 yards, including eight of at least 60.

Auburn's offense was not only explosive, it was consistent. The Tigers scored points in 41 of 52 quarters during the season (78.8 percent), and started the season by scoring in the first 20 quarters of the year. Auburn scored at least one touchdown in 34 of the 52 quarters played in the 2009 season, including a streak of 14 in a row at one point.

As quarterbacks coach, Malzahn instructed Chris Todd, who set an Auburn single-season record with 22 touchdown passes in 2009. Todd threw for 2,612 yards, which was the third-best single-season total in school history, and his 198 completions also ranked third.

The striking numbers shouldn't have come as a surprise, as during Malzahn's two seasons at Tulsa, his offenses there were also among the nation's finest, ranking first nationally in total offense in 2007 and 2008.

The 2008 Tulsa offense averaged 569.9 yards per game and was second nationally averaging 47.2 points per games. The Hurricane offense was first in the country in third down conversion percentage (57.0 pct.) and yards per play (7.27 ypp) and was also fifth nationally in rushing offense (268.0) and ninth in passing offense (301.9 ypg).

In 2007, Malzahn's offense ranked as the nation's top offense, gaining 543.9 yards per game. The Hurricane also ranked third nationally for passing, fifth for pass efficiency and 10th for scoring offense.

Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team school records and 12 individual records. The Hurricane also set nine Conference USA team records, while Tulsa quarterback Paul Smith broke an NCAA record by throwing for at least 300 yards in 14 consecutive games.

During Malzahn's one season at Arkansas in 2006, the Razorbacks finished with a 10-4 record and were SEC West Division Champions.

Two of Malzahn's first three collegiate offenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including the 2008 Tulsa team that was fifth averaging 268.0 yards per game, and his 2006 Arkansas offense that was fourth nationally (228.5 ypg) behind Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and fellow All-American Felix Jones.

Arkansas was also ranked among the top-35 nationally in total offense and scoring offense. He was named the Rivals.com National Offensive Coordinator of the Year in 2006.

In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. Malzahn coached two quarterbacks, Josh Floyd and Rhett Lashlee, who set national passing records. Malzahn also tutored 2005 Gatorade, Parade Magazine and Rivals.com National Player of the Year Mitch Mustain at Springdale High School.

In his one season at Ole Miss prior to coming to Auburn, the Rebels tied for first nationally in tackles for loss with 112 and tied for fourth in the nation with 39 sacks. Ole Miss' defense also finished fourth nationally in rushing defense (85.5 ypg), 19th nationally in total defense (307.3 ypg), 20th in scoring defense (19.0 ppg).

Rocker mentored Peria Jerry to second-team All-American honors and Greg Hardy to third-team recognition.

Rocker's 2006 line at Arkansas ranked No. 4 in the SEC and 33rd in the nation in rushing defense, holding opponents to 114.57 yards per game. Arkansas also ranked first in the SEC and No. 21 nationally in tackles for loss with 6.93.

Under Rocker's guidance, Jamaal Anderson earned honorable mention All-American honors after totaling 14 sacks and 20.5 tackles for loss, ranking third nationally in sacks per game and 12th in tackles for loss. Ted ROOF

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Ted Roof is in his second as defensive coordinator at Auburn, and also coaches the Tigers' linebackers.

In his first season at Auburn, Roof juggled a defense that was decimated by injuries and a lack of depth, and still helped the team to an 8-5 record and a victory in the Outback Bowl. The Tigers ranked 17th in the nation in opponent third down conversion percentage (32.8) and forced 24 turnovers. The Auburn defense also ranked 31st nationally in pass defense efficiency and picked off 17 passes – tied for third most in the SEC.

Roof also coached junior linebackers Josh Byrnes and Craig Stevens, who totaled 104 and 95 tackles, respectively, to lead the team. Byrnes' 104 tackles were the most by an Auburn player since the 2001 season.

Roof came to Auburn after serving as the defensive coordinator at Minnesota in 2008. Under Roof's leadership, the Minnesota defense allowed 135 fewer yards per game and 12 fewer points per game than in 2007, while improving from 1-11 to 7-6 and a bowl appearance.

Likewise his first year at Duke in 2002, Roof directed the Blue Devil defense to marked improvements, as Duke moved from 113th to 58th nationally in total defense. After finishing ninth in the ACC against the run prior to his arrival, Duke led the league in rushing defense a year later by allowing just 120.5 yards per game on the ground.

Roof coached at Duke for six seasons, including four as the head coach and two as the defensive coordinator. He served as the interim head coach at Duke for five games at the conclusion of the 2003 season before being named head coach in December of 2003.

From 1998-2001, Roof coached at his alma mater, Georgia Tech, where he was nominated in 2000 for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach. During Roof's coaching stint at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets posted a four-year record of 35-14, tied for the 1998 ACC Championship and played in four bowl games.

While at Georgia Tech, Roof coached the linebackers in 1998 before being elevated to defensive coordinator prior to the 1999 season. In 1998, the Yellow Jackets went 10-2, shared the ACC title with Florida State and upended Notre Dame in the Gator Bowl.

Trooper TAYLOR

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/WIDE RECEIVERS

Trooper Taylor is in his second season as assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Auburn. During his first season, he helped the Auburn offense emerge as one of the nation's finest, while also solidifying his reputation as a top-notch recruiter.

The Auburn offense set numerous school records during his first season, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and most plays in a season (914).

Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth. The Tigers also had the seventh-most rushing yards (2,756) in a single season in Auburn history.

Taylor coached Darvin Adams, who broke the Auburn single-season record for receptions with 60 for 997 yards and ranked second in the SEC with 10 touchdown catches. Adams, who entered the season with just three career catches for 18 yards, was named the MVP of the Outback Bowl after hauling in career highs of 12 receptions for 142 yards.

In addition to his coaching duties on the field, Taylor was instrumental in Auburn signing a consensus top-five recruiting class in 2010. For his efforts, he was named by Rivals.com to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the top 10 recruiters in the SEC for the signing class of 2010. It marked the third time he has been named to the top 25 list by Rivals.com, having previously earned the recognition in 2005 and 2007.

In 2008 in his only season at Oklahoma State, Taylor helped the OSU offense produce two first-team All-Americans in wide receiver Dez Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter. Bryant earned consensus All-America honors after hauling in 87 receptions for 1,480 yards and a school-record 19 touchdowns. A Biletnikoff Award finalist and a first-team All-Big 12 selection and academic all-conference member, Bryant led the Big 12 in receiving and was third nationally. Taylor helped Bryant more than double his production from the previous season, as the year prior to Taylor's arrival at OSU, Bryant had only 43 receptions for 662 yards and six scores.

With Taylor serving as co-offensive coordinator, the 2008 Oklahoma State offense also boasted a finalist for the Manning Award presented to the nation's top quarterback (Zac Robinson) and a finalist for the Mackey Award presented to the nation's top tight end (Brandon Pettigrew).

In 2006 at Tennessee, Taylor coached Robert Meachem, a first-round NFL draft pick and current member of the Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints, to All-America honors. That season, the Vols receiving trio of Jayson Swain, Bret Smith and Robert Meachem tallied a combined 159 receptions for 2,439 yards and 22 touchdowns. Meachem improved dramatically in his first season under Taylor, going from 29 catches for 383 yards and two TDs in 2005, to 71 receptions for 1,298 yards and an SEC-leading 11 touchdown grabs in 2006.

With all three players gone in 2007, Taylor took the new pass-catching trio of Lucas Taylor, Austin Rogers and Josh Briscoe under his wing, with the three combining for 175 catches for 2,130 yards and 14 touchdowns.

He also directed the Vols running backs from 2004-05, coaching Cedric Houston and Gerald Riggs Jr., who became Tennessee's only pair of 1,000-yard rushers in the same season, in 2004.

While at Tennessee, he helped the program make appearances at the 2005 Cotton Bowl, the 2007 Outback Bowl and the 2008 Outback Bowl.

Taylor played defensive back at Baylor from 1988-91 and finished his playing career as the school's leader in kickoff returns (53) and return yardage (1,063).

Taylor came to Knoxville after coaching receivers at Tulane from 1999-2003. He coached four wideouts into the NFL during his tenure in New Orleans, including the nation's top receiving trio in 2001 of Adrian Burnette, Kerwin Cook and Terrell Harris, who combined to lead the country with 2,384 receiving yards on 185 catches. The fourth future NFL player under his tutelage at Tulane was Roydell Williams, who went on to set school and Conference USA career record for touchdown catches with 35.

Thigpen, 39, achieved accolades as a Parade All-America and Virginia Defensive Player of the Year at Potomac High School in Dumfries, Va.

Jay Jacobs
Athletics Director

Auburn Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to becoming the nation's preeminent Athletics Department.

In his tenure at the helm of the Tigers' program, the department has prospered athletically, academically and financially.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides benefitting Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans. The department has focused on five strategic goals under his leadership: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing the department's fiscal affairs, complying with SEC and NCAA rules and providing a positive game day experience.

The Auburn Athletic Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors Cup and has claimed eight national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06, along with 15 Southeastern Conference titles.

Academically, Auburn has earned six public recognitions by the NCAA for scoring in the 90th-100th percentile nationally in the Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Jacobs served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited prior to his appointment as Director of Athletics and has initiated several successful business ventures for the Athletics Department, including a lucrative contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel, which was extended in 2009, and a nine-year extension with multimedia rights holder ISP Sports.

During Jacobs' tenure, Auburn has also moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletic programs and their fans, most notably, the construction of the $92.5 million state-of-the-art Auburn Arena and basketball practice facility that will open prior to the 2010-11 season. The most recent facilities upgrade will be a $16 million multipurpose 100-yard indoor practice facility that will allow Auburn teams to practice indoors during inclement weather.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletic Department for the previous 20 years. Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively, and was a member of the Auburn football team, earning two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983.

War EAGLE

"War Eagle"

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

Auburn's Eagles

For over 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year — including Auburn's home football games. Currently, three flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn Fight Song

War...Eagle, fly down the field, Ever to conquer, never to yield.
War...Eagle fearless and true. Fight on, you orange and blue.
Go! Go! Go!
On to vic'try, strike up the band,
Give 'em hell, give 'em hell.
Stand up and yell, Hey! War...Eagle, win for Auburn, Power of Dixie Land!

WAR EAGLE

Creed & ALMA MATER

Auburn Alma Mater

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our Loyalty the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Auburn Creed

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.

I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports to develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.

I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.

I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."

And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

Tiger WALK

An Auburn Tradition

An Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Alabama game when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk is two hours before kickoff for every game.

WATERFALLS 'Toomer's CORNER

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn. Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

What's in a name?

Of the first 53 meetings between Auburn and Alabama, 48 took place in Birmingham. The name "Iron Bowl" comes from Birmingham's historic role in the country's iron industry.

Auburn set a school record with 11 sacks during a 28-18 victory over Alabama in the 2005 Iron Bowl.

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 was Bo Jackson's 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line, which capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

Auburn UNIVERSITY

Auburn's beautiful main campus--graced by greenery and open spaces and highlighted by historic Samford Park--is made up of 375 buildings spread across 1,875 acres. Buildings in the main campus area are within walking distance of each other. Residence halls are only a short walk from classrooms, dining and athletic facilities. Auburn is located in the southeastern United States in east-central Alabama about 30 miles from the Georgia border.

U.S. News & World Report has ranked Auburn among the top 50 public universities nationwide for 17 consecutive years. Auburn is ranked a "Best Value" by the Princeton Review.

AU invests in extensive national assessments to obtain quality, data-driven information for measuring and continually improving instruction and student preparation.

More than 92 percent of our students and more than 95 percent of our alumni say that if they could start college over again, they would choose Auburn.

A 2005 Harvard survey ranked AU as one of the top six colleges and universities in the country as a place for young faculty to work, which has a lot to do with actively engaging students.

AU is the only university in the country to offer an undergraduate degree in wireless engineering, and the first in the Southeast to offer degrees in software engineering.

AU's Draughon Library is the largest library in the state, with 2.9 million volumes. The library subscribes to 19,000 journals and 256 electronic databases, provides library instruction and tours to students, prospective students and parents, and serves as an instructional resource for faculty.

Auburn UNIVERSITY

Auburn People

Auburn faculty and alumni are world-class achievers in practically every arena. Here are just a few examples:

AU has graduated more than 210,000 students since it began in 1856. Currently, we have 206,695 living alumni around the world.

There are 98 Auburn clubs around the country whose primary goal is to raise scholarships for incoming freshmen. Clubs offer more than 100 scholarships annually. Two clubs have endowments of more than $100,000 and the Alumni Association Endowment stands at more than $2.7 million.

The Student Alumni Association, with membership of over 3,400 students, offers three student scholarships for its rising senior members.

The Auburn Alumni Association has more than 45,000 members and contributes more than $95,000 each year toward professorships and other faculty awards.

More than 12,000 people a year visit the Alumni hospitality tent before home football games.

Did You Know?

Auburn was named one of the top 10 places to live in the country by U.S. News and World Report in its 2009 rankings

One of the state's fastest growing cities, Auburn has a population of about 57,000. An adjacent twin-city, Opelika, has a population of about 30,000. Atlanta, Ga., is only 100 miles to the northeast via Interstate 85; Birmingham is 100 miles to the north via U.S. 280 or I-85/65; Montgomery is 50 miles to the west via I-85; and the Gulf beaches are about 200 miles away. The university enjoys the advantages of security, seclusion and clean air and water. Auburn is a clean city with a mild climate that offers many cultural opportunities.

Mission Statement

We have a two-fold purpose: To enable our student-athletes to be successful in all areas of their lives, athletics and academics, and personal endeavors, both now and in their future careers, by providing them with the best resources available in academics, facilities and coaches: And while meeting the needs of our student athletes, to represent and promote Auburn University in a positive manner in all that we do.

The Auburn Athletics Department's absolute values are to always tell the truth and to treat others as we would like to be treated. We will also adhere to the timeless values of the Auburn Creed. We will lead the way to integrity, diversity, communications, both internally and externally, compliance and customer service.

We will function as a team, helping each other to be successful, rather than focusing on personal success. We will work for the benefit of others and for Auburn, not for personal gain. We will have an attitude of constructive discontent; always striving to be better.
